

ENGLISHMEN
ALARMEDOver Agitation For German
"Monroe Doctrine."

RELATIVE TO BALTIC SEA

Many Sober-Minded Britishers Think
That England's Naval Prestige
Is Threatened by the Proposed Plan.

London, July 29.—Englishmen generally are manifesting considerable alarm over the agitation which is proceeding in Germany urging the Kaiser to take the initiative in the issuance of a proclamation similar to the Monroe Doctrine in nature and barring all warships from the Baltic Sea except those of Germany, Russia, Denmark and Sweden. Many sober-minded Englishmen consider that England's naval prestige is threatened by the proposed plan and there is no doubt that if Germany persists in her designs, a serious Anglo-German crisis will arise.

The Morning Post, one of the most conservative journals in England today, sounds a warning on the subject and declares that if those who advocate the closing of the Baltic to the warships of other nations really represent Germany and want a fight with this country the sooner they have it the better.

TRIED TO CARRY OFF GIRL.

Desperate Negro Appears at a New Jersey
Fresh Air Camp.

Plainfield, N. J., July 29.—A negro, believed to be Charles Long, the alleged murderer of Matthew Cunningham of Trenton and later escaped from the Dismal Swamp, in South Plainfield, attempted yesterday to carry off nine year old Annie Wagner, a member of a fresh air camp at Netherwood. The negro failed in his attempt to get away with the little girl, although he dragged her screaming into the woods. There he was forced to leave her and fled for safety.

The negro was beaten over the head and shoulders by Mrs. Cousins, the child's aunt, who had dropped an infant she was carrying to join in the pursuit.

IT WAS A LIE.

Says Secretary Wilson When Shown Report.

Washington, July 29.—The report that he had sent his resignation, as Secretary to the President was brought to the attention of Secretary Wilson this morning. "Maliciously gotten up," maliciously circulated by those who lie," was the way he refuted it. The Secretary is planning to leave the city shortly for his summer vacation. Assistant Secretary Hay will have charge during his absence.

THEY ENDORSED
COMMITTEE'S ACTCentral Labor Union Delegates Think Invitations to Labor Banquet Are All Right—Other Matters of Business.

Editor Barre Daily Times: At the regular meeting of the Central Labor Union last night the action of the committee on state branch entertainment in inviting Attorney General Clark Fittz of Brattleboro, Mayor Barclay, State's Attorney S. H. Jackson, Representative G. H. Page, and Lawyer Swasey was unanimously endorsed by the largest meeting since the formation of the central body. This goes far to prove that the union representatives need no dictation from any source outside the province of organized labor.

Report from Labor Day picnic committee showed that the forthcoming labor picnic will in every way be up to the standard of former years. It is the intention of the Central Labor Union to have the greatest display as regards advertising the "union label" that has ever been seen in this state. Sports will be of a high grade, and include among other things, a championship five-aside football match, the winners to receive a purse of twenty dollars, the next best receiving ten dollars. New novelties and new attractions will insure a good time to all, weather permitting. See local press, posters, and hand bill for detailed items of interest.

I have been asked by many union men in this city that a reprint of the translated article from the Cronaca Sovversiva be published in the Times. The claim is made that they have heard my side of the story, why not the other? Fraternally yours,
ALEX. IRONSIDE,
Sec. C. L. U.

COLLECTING JUDGMENT.

Patch Company of Rutland Trusteeing
Wages.

Rutland, July 29.—County Clerk H. A. Harman is accumulating a big pile of papers relative to the famous strike case, known as the F. R. Patch Manufacturing company vs. Protection Lodge, No. 215, International Order of Machinists, or more properly to the trustee proceedings brought against the members of the lodge to collect the $3,500 judgment given the plaintiff company. There have been within the last few weeks over 30 papers filed in this case. The trustee proceedings are against John E. Capeless and 22 others and 20 of the defendants have filed either demurrers or petitions for the dismissal of the action against them. In most of these a point at law as to the liability of the individual is the ground for action.

The several concerns by which the defendants in the case were employed at the time suit was brought have, in accordance with instructions, filed disclosures showing how much in wages was due their employees at the time the writ was served. The Rutland Railroad company, which held the most money in trust, owed T. E. Howley $29.93, J. A. Keenan $114.54, Martin McLaughlin $84.87, J. H. Grimes $38.23 and Fred Carter $86.71.

The Howe Scale company held the following amounts of wages of the defendants in trust: C. E. Nourse, $20; J. P. Hinchey, $18; J. M. Hinchey, $20; W. M. Haverty, $18.13; T. L. Huffmire, $17; W. L. Weymouth, $15.93; Fred L. Lehr, $4.

STEAMER WAS DAMAGED.

Fire on the Teutonic Last Night Gave Much Alarm.

New York, July 29.—Fire which threatened destruction to the steamship Teutonic of the White Star line at her pier in the North River at the foot of Eleventh street, broke out early last night, and before it was extinguished did damage amounting to more than $3,000.

In the electrical room, where the fire started, nearly all the machinery was damaged and the entire electric working of the ship was interrupted. Water poured into the room and ran down into the engines and it is thought that they are also damaged. During the fire, three members of the crew found themselves hemmed in by the flames and were carried to the pier in an unconscious condition. The fire boat McClellan and the fire engines threw water on the flames for over an hour.

Man Who Was Shot Is Supposed to Be
A. H. Ross of Boston—The Woman Outlaw Was Captured.

Bennington, July 29.—In a running fight with officers of the law, an outlaw, supposed to be A. H. Ross of Boston, was shot and killed last night north of the village of Manchester, and a young woman who was a member of the gang was captured. It is thought that the outlaw was shot by mistake by one of the other two outlaws who escaped.

For two weeks past the gang composed of three men and one woman has been terrorizing the communities in Rupert, Pawlet and the west part of Dorset. Armed heavily they made incursions into the thinly settled communities and on the farmers. They robbed gardens, cleaned out hen roosts, swept clothes lines, ransacked cottages and in some instances made bold attempts at robbery. They held the section in subjection all the time, and there was no one who dared to attempt their capture.

Last night Deputy Sheriff Harvey Lincoln and A. J. Mason, with a posse of men, started out to arrest the party. They went to their camp in the woods. The outlaws saw them coming and fired a charge at the posse, but none of the shots took effect.

Then the gang retreated farther into the woods, the posse closing in on them all the time. Shots were exchanged at intervals, and finally the posse came up with the body of a member of the gang, and it is supposed that the man lagged behind the others and was mistaken for one of the posse. The others fired and killed him. While some of the posse took care of the body, the others pressed forward and finally caught the woman of the gang. The other two men escaped the officers, but there is another posse in pursuit. It is expected that they will soon be captured.

The woman who is young, not being over 17 or 18 years of age, keeps her lips sealed tight and refuses to make any statement regarding herself or her companions. The officers have been lead to the belief that the dead man is A. H. Ross.

BATTED HARD
IN EIGHTHBurlington Recruits Took Yesterday's Game.

FROM LOCAL BALL TEAM

Both Burns and Wiggs Pitched Excellent
Ball, But Latter Was Fortunate in Keeping Them
Scattered.

The Recruits came down from Burlington yesterday, and reinforced by two players from the Tri-State league defeated the Giants in a rattling good game of ball, by the score of 2 to 1. The most recent recruits figured largely in the victory. Ward, the successor to the colored man at short, got two safe swipes off Burns, and Keough performed fairly well at second. A third recruit, a pitcher, was not tried, but the work fell to Wiggs' lot. The big fellow had all manner of things up his sleeve. He was touched up for only five hits, one of which was a homer by Shaughnessy; he also struck out eight and gave but one base on balls.

Against him was Eddie Burns who also did great work, allowing but six hits and giving one free pass, hitting one and striking out three. But the Recruits were fortunate in bunching their safe drives. Burns fielded his position admirably, having five putouts and again covering first in a finished manner when Matthews hit to Ashmore. Morey, in McMahon's place in center field, was a tower of strength, pulling down two flies and nailing Wiggs at the plate on Matthews' single in the eighth. Uniac worked in the only error of the game on Hazelton's grounder in the second inning, but Hazelton didn't get any further.

Burlington's left and right fielders covered lots of ground, particularly Aldinger in the former position. He robbed Uniac of a hit in the eighth, coming in on the run and taking a line drive three inches from the ground. Matthews got a timely hit which scored the winning run in the eighth.

The story of the game up to the seventh inning was a succession of goose-eggs with both teams playing championship ball. In the third Burns pulled out of an extremely small hole. Ward singled and tried Eaton's wing on a steal. He died so easily that no other Recruit had the courage to try during the remainder of the game. Warner followed it up with a single, and then Wiggs hit one which Dorman knocked down but could not field. With two on bases Keough hit to Uniac who got Warner out at second, while Stankard nearly ended Keough on first.

In the first six innings the Giants got three hits, the pitchers getting them, Burns two and Coombs one, but they didn't come together. In the seventh, with one down and Shaughnessy at the bat, Wiggs thought to play a foxy game by pitching when Shaughnessy met his game by slamming the ball over the right field fence for a home run. That temporarily paralyzed the cabbage man, and he gave a free pass to the next man, Stankard, and advanced him to second on a wild pitch. But Stankard died there as the best grounder which Wiggs cabined and tossed to first. Burns made a fine try for his third hit, sending the ball into short left center. Aldinger made a pretty catch, and the chance was over.

Burlington batted out a victory in the eighth inning. Simon was out, Uniac to Ashmore, but Ward came up with his second hit in three times at the bat. Warner got in front of one of Burns' speedy shoots, and there were two on bases. Big Wiggs was next and he hit a hot one for a single, Ward scoring from second. There were still two men on bases. Warner on third and Wiggs on second. Burns disposed of Keough on strikes. Right here was the only yellow work of Lieut. Thomas Strong, a Burlington man who umpired without the sanction of the league. He handed out the small end of the deal to Burns on balls and strikes, and Hayes was tendered a free pass to first, which he was pleased to accept as he had already struck out once, popped to short again and rolled one to the pitcher on the third try. His gift made three on bases. The colored man was up next, and he proved equal to the occasion, sending down a hot grounder over second, on which Warner went in with the second score. Wiggs concluded he'd score on the same hit, but he didn't reckon on Morey's quick return of the ball and Eaton's lightning acceptance of it. He died. But there was enough to win, without his score.

The Giants' attempts in the next two innings were feeble. In the last inning Wiggs fanned Eaton, Coombs and Shaughnessy. The score:

While running bases, Wiggs from second base would coach the batter what Burns was about to throw.

A quartette of Burlington rooters thought they were being badly treated because they were not allowed to sit on the players' bench and hurl remarks at the Inter-city players. One of them, who was particularly flush with his 100 to 90 bid, said it was the "meanest town I ever saw," and concluded his soliloquy by declaring "Ain't I glad I come."

With two regular fielders out of the game the Giants put up a great fighting game. Although Morey and Coombs are pitchers they earned their salt as fielders yesterday.

Wiggs lost his nerve for the time being when Shaughnessy surprised him by banging the ball over the fence.

Burns did a remarkably swift piece of work when he raced down the line and took Ashmore's throw to first on the jump, beating out the fast Matthews by a close margin.

Vickers considers that he is a big attraction here, but he scarcely raised a wail when he took a conspicuous position near first base toward the last of the game.

WON IN THE 12TH.

Great Batting Game Taken by Platts-

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 29.—In a game full of heavy hitting the home team yesterday defeated Rutland, 10 to 9, in twelve innings. George, the visiting twirler, was touched up for a regular fusillade of hits, while Rutland got a big assortment of Bagley who was succeeded by Barberick in the eighth inning.

Cosgrave and Shean got into a scrap. Cosgrave stole second and was pushed off the base by Shean. When Cosgrave called the umpire's attention to Shean hit him, and Cosgrave hit back. The players were then separated. The score:

ASSERTS HE
IS A CITIZENState's Attorney Jackson Files
Answer.

IN QUO WARRANTO CASE

Says That Although Canada Was the Place of His Birth He Was Born
an American Citizen and Always Has Been.

State's Attorney S. Hollister Jackson has filed his answer to the quo warranto proceeding brought by Charles A. Phelps, until recently local operator for the brokerage firm of H. R. Leighton & Co., questioning his right to hold the office of state's attorney on the ground that he is not a citizen of the United States. Mr. Jackson maintains that he is through birth a citizen of the United States, although admitting that he was born in Canada. John W. Gordon is his attorney.

Mr. Jackson alludes to his election as state's attorney in September, 1904, and by the legislature the October following, to the fact that he has furnished the proper bond, that he has the proper commission from the governor, that he assumed the duties of the office December 1, 1904, and that he has performed the duties of that office ever since.

On the vital point at issue, his citizenship, he declares that he has always been a citizen of the United States and that for the last nine years he has resided in Barre, though admitting that he was born in Canada and that he never was naturalized as a citizen of the United States. Yet, his answer states he was born a citizen of this country, and that ever since his birth he has been a citizen of the United States. He therefore claims that he was and is eligible to the office of state's attorney for Washington county.

The quo warranto petition by Phelps and the state's attorney's answer will go before Judge Watson of the Vermont supreme court, after which the depositions of both sides will be taken. It is said that Elisha May of St. Johnsbury, of the legal firm of May & Hill, has been delving into the state's attorney's antecedents back to colonial times, reinforced by the Jackson genealogy. Mr. May has requested Richard A. Hoar of this city, who was retained in the defense of Phelps, the petitioner, in the alleged bucket shop case to assist in the conduct of the quo warranto proceedings.
